

Notes from Jan 30 meeting.

SMM Energy committee attendees: Chris Bryan, Tom Tietenberg, Dick Thomas, John Joseph, and Greg Brown.

CSG will be invited to come to Waterville for a briefing on Feb 23 or 25 at 5pm

Adam Gifford, Program Manager for Conservation Services Group (CSG) <http://www.csgrp.com/> who has the contract with the Efficiency Maine to administer the residential energy stimulus program (see attached). He has agreed to attend a meeting in Waterville to discuss how we may collaborate. Technical Field Representatives, Jon Hill will come as well.. Jon lives in Winslow and may end up being our local go-to guy.

CEI will be invited to come to Waterville in March (date not yet set)

Michael Finnegan, Senior Loan and Investment Officer at Coastal Enterprise Institute (CEI). He is very interested in providing a briefing for us regarding the Financial Options for the District Energy Project. Ron Phillips, Steve Cole.

Chris Bryan, will participate in the District Energy Project.

Paul (the Governor's CHP Task Force consultant) will be invited by Greg to attend a District Energy Project meeting to discuss technologies, electrical distribution rules, new net metering, 50 mega watt community energy district, etc. legal framework Greg Thomson is the head of Paul's company.

Greg will evaluate load balance calculation for district energy.

Chris: Bob Hussey is assisting with wind turbine at KVCC, target summer install 2010.