

RX4 Meeting
June 22, 2011
12:00-2:00

Members & Guests Present: Blanche Davison, Jane Edwards (guest), Geoff Hill, Elery Keene, Kim Lindlof (guest), Ross Nason, Lass Von Appen, Linda Woods

Kim Lindlof (the president of Mid Maine Chamber of Commerce) would like to compost more at the Taste of Waterville on August 3, but has not got the personnel. Ross suggested trying to get businesses to volunteer to compost. Geoff suggested having a limited number of stations. The group agreed to try to make this happen.

Action Items:

Linda: Contact farmer in Sidney about taking the materials

Ross: Contact City of Waterville about taking the materials

Everyone: Try to find trash cans

Geoff: Contact MOFGA for trash cans

Geoff: Create table tents explaining about purpose composting & send to Linda

Ross: Print the above

Kim: Make the restaurants aware of this

Linda: Find volunteers to staff these sites

Ross has ordered the small signs for SKILLS. They should arrive Friday, June 23. There has been a snafu with the sign for the outside of the building. Ross is working to solve this problem.

Ross distributed a draft of the recycling brochure. The plan is to have this finalized to distribute at various summer events.

Action Items:

Jane: Get Vassalboro's contact info

Ross: Try to get this completed & to Linda by June 29

It was agreed to distribute bags at the various public events where Sustain Mid Maine Coalition: Winslow's July 4, Green Expo, and Waterville's Family Fun Fest.

Elery is concerned about the state's wireless Smart Meter program. He explained that the City of Bath has drafted an ordinance prohibiting the installation of Smart Meters. He distributed a copy of an article from the online Kennebec Journal and a letter he had written to the editor of The Sentinel. A discussion followed concerning people's thoughts about this program.

The next meeting will be Thursday, June 14 at noon at Linda Woods's house. Meet at Pizza Hut on KMD at 11:45. Linda will e-mail directions to those indicating they will attend.

