

Join Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce
on Wednesday, February 26
11:30AM—1:00PM
at Best Western Plus
375 Main Street, Waterville

WITH GUEST SPEAKER STATE SENATOR EMILY CAIN

Emily Cain was first elected to the Maine State House in 2004 at age 24. In 2010, Emily became the youngest woman to hold the position of House Minority Leader in Maine history. She currently serves in the State Senate and is running to become the first Democratic woman elected to represent Maine's 2nd congressional district.

Senator Cain joins us February 26th as part of our Leading Women's Luncheon series, which features Maine women's presentations on their paths to success and the struggles they have faced along the way. To register, please see below.

Our Leading Women's Luncheon series is made possible by the generous sponsorship of:
