

Mayoral Proclamation

- Whereas all children in Waterville should have access to the highest-quality education possible; and
- Whereas Waterville recognizes the important role that an effective education plays in preparing all students in Waterville to be successful adults; and
- Whereas quality education is critically important to the economic vitality of Waterville; and
- Whereas Waterville is home to a variety of high quality public and nonpublic schools from which parents can choose for their children, in addition to families who educate their children in the home; and
- Whereas educational variety not only helps to diversify our economy and enhance the vibrancy of our community, but is also an integral part our nation's heritage and values; and
- Whereas Waterville has many high-quality teaching professionals in all types of school settings including public, religious, and home schooling who are committed to educating our children; and
- Whereas School Choice Week is celebrated across the country by millions of students, parents, educators, schools and organizations to raise awareness of the need for effective educational options.

Now therefore, I, Nicholas Isgro, Mayor of Waterville, on behalf of the City Council do hereby recognize January 21-27, 2018 as

WATERVILLE SCHOOL CHOICE WEEK

and I call this observance to the attention of all of our citizens.

In Witness Whereof, I do hereby set my hand and seal this 2nd day of January, 2018.

Nicholas Isgro, Mayor
