Mayoral Recognition

On June 24, 2015, Waterville Fire Department's Rescue was dispatched to Jokas Discount Beverages on Front Street for a report of a man down. While in route, they were notified that CPR was in progress. Upon arrival, Rescue Technician Ryan Cote and Firefighter Glendon Bordas found the man unresponsive with no pulse and not breathing. Cote and Bordas took over life saving measures and, after delivering a shock with an AED (automated external defibrillator), effectively brought the man back to life. Just three days later on June 27th, this same man, Sean Gillis, walked into the Waterville Fire Department to personally thank Firefighters Cote and Bordas for these lifesaving actions. Mr. Gillis' quick recovery is truly amazing as is the appreciation he showed to Firefighters Cote and Bordas.
