Mayoral Proclamation

Whereas, Sharon Abrams has served the people of Waterville and the surrounding area for over 40 years in her capacity with the Maine Children's Home for Little Wanderers; and

Whereas, Sharon began her career with the Children's Home as one of the original classroom teachers in the 1970's and went on to become the organization's Executive Director; and

Whereas, under Sharon's leadership, the Children's Home has grown from its humble beginnings to a multi-faceted campus environment, evolving to meet the challenges of changing times; and

Whereas, for the past four decades, Sharon has truly shown her dedication to improving the lives of children and families in the greater Waterville area; and

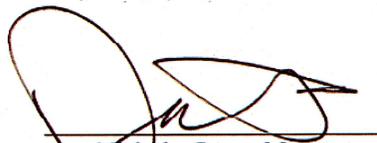

Whereas, it is appropriate that the City of Waterville recognize the value of individuals who go above and beyond to make our community a better place;

Now therefore, on behalf of myself and the City Council, I, Nicholas Isgro, Mayor of Waterville, wish to proclaim December 30, 2015, as

Sharon Abrams Day

in the City of Waterville and urge all residents to recognize her countless contributions in our area.

In Witness Whereof, I do hereby set my hand and seal this 28th day of December, 2015.

Nicholas Isgro, Mayor
